

UR Medicine Recovery Center of Excellence

Partnering with rural communities to increase supports and remove barriers

We are working to prevent and reduce the impact of substance use and substance use disorder (SUD) in rural areas nationwide by building and sharing an array of evidence-based practices that meet the needs of rural communities.

One of three Rural Centers of Excellence on SUD in the U.S., we team up with rural partners and organizations that serve rural areas to apply best practices to local efforts.

How We Collaborate

Resources and Programs

We have developed resources, trainings, and pilot projects to save lives, expand access to treatment, and reduce stigma around SUD.

- Saving Lives
  - Overdose prevention
  - Suicide prevention
- Treatment Access
  - Workforce development
  - Medications for opioid use disorder
  - Treatment engagement
- Reducing Stigma
  - Community workshops
  - Art/poster campaigns

Prevention

Through the following community-based pilot projects, we are currently working to expand our shared knowledge of effective prevention strategies:

- Reducing Stigma
  - Community Conversations on Opioid Use Disorder
  - Methadone treatment
- Adolescent and Youth
  - Community-driven, trauma-informed interventions
  - E-cigarette use
- Opioid Stewardship
